

Regiment under command of Lieutenant Colonel Josiah Given

Regiment present for duty on December 31, 1862: 23 officers, 423 enlisted men

Reported Casualties: 26 killed, 118 wounded, 23 missing- Total: 167

Tabulated Casualties:

Killed: 25

Died of wounds: 32

Died while POW/on parole: 1

Wounded: 104

Missing: 10 (+ 3 wounded)

Captured: 8 (+ 24 wounded)

Total: 180

Field and Staff

Lieutenant Colonel Josiah Given, severely wounded in arm

Captain Ashbel Fenton (acting Major), seriously wounded in ankle, captured and paroled, died of wounds April 4, 1863

Adjutant Alexander Watt Shaw Minear, seriously wounded in left lung

Sergeant Major Dow L. Carter, wounded in hip

Company A

Corporal Royal S. Augustus, killed

Corporal John T. Mowbray, killed

Corporal Josiah Pimmons, killed January 2, 1863

Corporal William T. Speaks, killed January 2, 1863

Corporal Isaiah Timmons, killed

Private Marshall M.C. Blucher, killed

Private James Hoddea, killed

Private Ebenezer Fennimore, wounded in left thigh (pelvis) January 2, 1863

and died of wounds January 2, 1863 (listed as June 2, 1863 in state roster)

Private Andrew Jackson McKelvry, wounded in arm (flesh wound) January 2, 1863

and died of wounds April 1, 1863

Private Henry M. Purcell, wounded in left lung January 2, 1863 and died of wounds January 7, 1863

Second Lieutenant Edward McLaren, wounded in left leg

First Sergeant Henry S. Roby, wounded in right arm January 2, 1863, arm amputated

Corporal Albert S. Toops, slightly wounded

Corporal David A. Woodland, wounded in thigh (flesh wound)

Private William A. Christian, slightly wounded in shoulder

Private George M. Coder, wounded in finger, middle finger amputated

Private Robert M. Goff, slightly wounded in arm (flesh wound)

Private Thomas Goodwin, slightly wounded in shoulder

Private Henry Hayes, wounded (contusion)

Private Allen Redding, slightly wounded in mouth

Private Enoch H. Smith, slightly wounded in toe, captured and paroled

Private Edward E. Trevitt, wounded in leg (flesh wound)

Private Franklin Maddox, missing

Company B

Corporal Robert F. Wakefield, wounded in breast and died of wounds January 18, 1863

Private Artemus M. Ball, wounded in thigh (flesh wound) and died of wounds February 1, 1863

Private Leroy S. Barcroft, wounded in breast near left shoulder (resection), captured and paroled, died of wounds February 3, 1863

Private James Buzzard, slightly wounded in arm and died of wounds February 18, 1863

Private Niles Bowen, wounded in abdomen and died of wounds January 1, 1863

Private Emineas Wyant, wounded in breast near shoulder and died of wounds March 20, 1863
Private Isaac N. Hutchinson, captured and died while on parole February 13, 1863
Corporal Edward W. Ellis, wounded in thigh near hip (flesh wound)
Corporal Archibald Fitzgerald, slightly wounded in arm
Corporal George Kahler, slightly wounded in leg
Musician Harmon L. Hameld, wounded in shoulder and missing (supposed captured)
Private Alfred H. Buck, wounded in thigh
Private Robert Campbell, wounded in breast
Private James C. Chapman, wounded in leg
Private Samuel Clawson, wounded in back (contusion from shell)
Private Harvey B. Gill, wounded in hand and captured
Private John L. Hamilton, wounded in wrist and captured
Private Alfred H. Karns, wounded in hand and captured
Private Leonidas K. Kennard, wounded in ankle, captured and paroled
Private Asa L. Scott, wounded in shoulder (arm fractured), captured and paroled
Private Peter Schlatterback, wounded in arm
Private Perry Waldron, wounded and missing
Private Charles L. Williams, wounded in hand
Private Dennis Wilson, wounded in knee
Musician Franklin W. Dollison, missing
Private John B. Clark, captured

Company C

(Captain Johnson M. Welch, commanding)
Private Joseph Cahill, killed
Private Henry J. Folly, killed
Sergeant James W. Light, wounded and missing, died of wounds in 1863
Captain Johnson M. Welch, wounded in calf January 2, 1863
Sergeant John W. Root, wounded in wrist and arm, captured and paroled
Corporal Samuel Hamrick, wounded in arm (flesh wound)
Corporal Jasper Witham, wounded in thigh (flesh wound)
*Private Irwin Colman, wounded in arm (flesh wound), captured and paroled
Private Hiram Kincade, wounded in head (flesh wound)
Private Isaac McDonald, wounded in leg (flesh wound), captured and paroled
Private Daniel North, Jr. wounded in leg (flesh wound)
Private Jonathan L. Snow, wounded in head
Private William L. Stiles, wounded in leg (flesh wound)
Private George Stout, wounded in arm (flesh wound)
Private Henry Taylor, missing
Musician Eugene W. Jewell, captured
Private Wesley Taylor, captured

Company D

Corporal William Ranier, killed
Corporal James S. Van Pelt, killed
Private Oscar Clark, killed
Private John P. Carsey, wounded in leg and died of wounds March 9, 1863
Private William Crosby, wounded in leg December 29, 1862, died of wounds January 17, 1863
Private Arias A. Lasley, wounded in leg, leg broken, died of wounds January 12, 1863
Sergeant Archelaus S. Camp, wounded in wrist
Sergeant Nelson Gaskill, wounded in side
Private Martin Bailey, wounded in both legs
Private William Blazer, wounded in arm
Private Harrison Dart, wounded in thigh
Private Enos Jones, wounded in leg
Private Eli C. Meek, wounded in leg

Private Felix Riley, wounded in arm
Private William Scott, wounded in leg
Private William A. Young, wounded in hand and captured

Company E

(Captain Philip E. Taylor, commanding)
Second Lieutenant William W. Blacker, killed
Sergeant John T. Davis, killed
Sergeant John Pease, killed
Private Dallas Fairley, killed
Private Thomas C. Morter, killed
Captain Philip E. Taylor, severely wounded in leg, side, and abdomen, died of wounds January 5, 1863
Private Sherman Freese, wounded in hip (flesh wound), captured and paroled, died of wounds February 7, 1863
Private William H. McDonald, wounded in left arm, arm amputated, captured and paroled, and died of wounds March 31, 1863
Private Edward B. Proctor, wounded in arm and died of wounds March 3, 1863
Corporal Alexander M. Hurst, wounded in foot
Corporal James W. Quinn, wounded in arm at elbow (resection elbow joint), captured and paroled
Private Charles Davis, wounded in shoulder
Private John L. Grey, seriously wounded in hand, captured and paroled
Private George W. O' Day, wounded in hip (flesh wound), captured and paroled
Private John D. Sampson, wounded in head
Private Owen B. Tuttle, wounded in leg and missing
Private William Gill, missing
Private James F. Morton, missing
Private Charles Stowe, missing
Corporal J. Newton Funston, captured
Musician John Tatman, captured
Private Josephus Garrett, captured
Private William Whitten, captured

Company F

Private Charles B. McDonald, killed
Private Harrison H. Sheets, killed January 2, 1863
Private Isaac Washington, wounded in leg (flesh wound) and died of wounds March 10, 1863
Sergeant Wesley J. Byers, slightly wounded in hand
Sergeant David J. Searight, slightly wounded in knee
Corporal Thomas P. Byers, wounded in head
Corporal Thomas H. Wade, wounded in head and captured
Private John C. Beard, wounded in shoulder
Private James S. Conner, wounded in arm
Private John Hill, wounded in hand
Private William B. Irwin, slightly wounded in finger
Private John Kandle, wounded in hand
Private Samuel Lytle, wounded in leg, leg amputated
Private James A. Nixon, wounded in leg, leg amputated
Private Austin R. Peckens, wounded in shoulder (fracture, scapular)
Private Henry C. Peckens, wounded

Company G

Private John Pratchard, killed
Private John C. Springer, killed
Corporal Belford Griffith, wounded in leg, leg amputated at knee, captured and paroled, died of wounds February 16, 1863
Private William C. Bowers, wounded in abdomen and died of wounds in January 1863
Private Lawrence Lowery, wounded in hip and died of wounds January 6, 1863
Sergeant William F. Quigley, wounded in thigh (flesh wound)

Private Edward Butt, wounded in arm
Private John Charlton, wounded in shoulder and captured
Private Samuel S. McDevitt, wounded in hand, finger amputated, captured and paroled
Private Joseph B. Saunders, wounded in arm (flesh wound)
Private Hiram C. Smith, wounded in leg
Musician William E. Barron, captured

Company H

Private George Call, wounded in leg and died of wounds January 16, 1863
Private William Franklin, wounded in shoulder and died of wounds January 17, 1863
Private Cheny S. Simmons, wounded in chest and side and died of wounds December 31, 1862
Second Lieutenant Lorenzo D. Carter, wounded in back (contusion)
Private Patrick Ford, wounded in arm, arm amputated
*Private George Gale, wounded in leg
Private Adam Gregory, wounded in leg
Private Addison C. Hamilton, wounded in leg
Private Wilson Liff, slightly wounded in neck
Private William Malone, wounded in hand
Private Samuel McElroy, wounded in foot
Private Pierce M. Phillips, slightly wounded in head
Private Wesley Rader, wounded in face
Private Thomas Bowen, missing
Private Samuel Meek, missing
Private George P. Wineman, missing

Company I

(Captain Charles C. Ross, commanding)
Sergeant William H. Wright, wounded in leg (flesh wound) and died of wounds February 7, 1863
Private Henry W. Cowley, wounded in thigh (leg fractured) and died of wounds January 31, 1863
Private James D. James, wounded in thigh (flesh wound), captured and paroled, and died of wounds June 2, 1863
Private Thomas A. Towns, wounded in hip (shell wound) January 1, 1863 and died of wounds January 1, 1863
Captain Charles C. Ross, wounded in breast (contusion of side)
Corporal Edmond E. Neal, wounded
Wagoner Andrew W. Boggs, wounded in shoulder
Private William G. Jewell, wounded in thigh
Private James M. Lyons, wounded in finger
Corporal Harrison P. McClafflin, missing

Company K

(Captain George Stivers, commanding)
Private Thomas Long, killed
Private William Moore, killed January 2, 1863
Private William H. Thompson, killed
Private Silas D. Wolf, killed
Captain George Stivers, wounded in chest near shoulder January 2, 1863 and died of wounds January 4, 1863
Private George W. Angel, wounded in foot, leg amputated, captured and paroled, died of wounds March 20, 1863
Private Milton Bosworth, wounded in back near shoulder and died of wounds January 14, 1863
Corporal Joseph Huggins, wounded in left arm near side and captured
Private Abraham Barringer, wounded in left cheek
Private Joseph Fulbertson, wounded in nose and arm
Private George Halliman, wounded in right hand
Private Peter J. Hartley, wounded in neck

Private Lewis A. Pullen, wounded in abdomen
Private George J. Price, wounded in leg
Private Elias W. Tucker, wounded in left side
*Private George Willis, wounded in left shoulder
Private John S. Willis, wounded in neck

Best Regards,

Daniel A. Masters

Download this as a file

Attachments:

[untitled-\[2\]](#)

45 k

[text/html]

Download | View

Take Address

Delete & Prev | Delete & Next

Move to:

INBOX

Move